* Evacuation is likely to be necessary from areas that are more extensive than the flood zones that are depicted here. Due to limited digital geographic information, the full extent of evacuation and areas subject to storm surge cannot be graphically represented here. Contact your local emergency manager to determine if you live or vacation in a designated evacuation zone or area that is subject to storm surge.

This Cape Cod Commission map, prepared for the Commission's "Cape Cod Emergency Preparedness Handbook," details shelter locations across Cape Cod, as well as flood zones as identified by FEMA. The handbook offers useful advice for preparing for and dealing with a variety of natural disasters. The handbook is available through towns, the CCC, and on-line.
